C88	DENIED BOARDING COMPENSATION [N]PART I (Continued) (B) FLIGHTS OR PORTIONS OF FLIGHTS ORIGINATING IN THE UNITED STATES (Continued) (2) Request Volunteers for Denied Boarding (a) In the event of an oversold flight, provided that the flight will not be delayed, AZ will request volunteers for denied boarding before using any other boarding priority. A "volunteer" is a person who responds to request for volunteers and who willingly accepts the offer of compensation, in exchange for relinquishing his confirmed reserved space. Any other passenger denied boarding is considered, for the purposes of this part, to have been denied boarding involuntarily, even if he accepts denied boarding compensation. (b) If an insufficient number of volunteers come forward, AZ may deny boarding to other passengers in accordance with its boarding priority rules. However, boarding may not be denied to any passenger involuntarily who was earlier asked to volunteer without having been informed that he was in danger of being denied boarding involuntarily and the amount of compensation to which he would have been entitled in that event. (3) Order of Off-Loading Should it become necessary to off-load revenue passengers, the order of off-loading will be in accordance with the boarding priorities of AZ. (4) Amount of Compensation Any passengers being denied boarding are entitled to compensation at the rate of 200 percent of the value of their remaining flight coupons, up to their next stopover or, if none, their destination, with a $400 maximum. However the compensation shall only be one half the amount described above, with a $200 maximum, if AZ arranges for comparable air transportation or other transportation accepted (i.e., used) by the passenger, which at the time either such arrangement is made, is planned to arrive at the airport of the passenger's next stopover or, if none, at the airport of the passenger's destination not later than 4 hours after the time the direct or connecting flight on which the confirmed space is held is planned to arrive. Volunteer passengers shall be offered the same amount of compensation as due to passengers denied boarding involuntarily. The Passenger may: (a) refuse the compensation and exercise all his rights at law. (b) elect to claim the compensation (always applicable in case of volunteers) (c) reserve his decision within the 30 day period allowed to this effect. Therefore AZ will: (a) in case of refusal assist the passenger for comparable transportation as per rules in force (b) in case of acceptance give each passenger who qualifies for denied boarding compensation, a payment of $400 on the day and place the involuntary denied boarding occurs. However, should AZ arrange comparable transportation which is planned to arrive at the passenger's next stopover, or destination, no later than four hours after the original flight was planned to arrive, the denied boarding compensation shall only be $200. (c) In case the passenger reserves his decision: (i) give each passenger who qualifies for denied boarding compensation a payment of $400.00 (or $200) whichever is applicable, on the day and place the involuntary denied boarding occurs; or (ii) make the passenger sign a Provisional Declaration. If within the 30 day period the document is presented for payment of the compensation, the office involved shall verify the existence of the prerequisite in order to pay the passenger the compensation. In which case, the passenger shall be asked to sign a receipt and release form relieving AZ from any further liability for its failure to honor the confirmed reservation.

Provided, however, that when carrier arranges for the passenger's convenience, alternate means of transportation which departs prior to the time such tender can be made to the passenger, tender shall be made by mail or other means within 24 hours after the time the denied boarding occurs. (F) Carrier shall furnish all passengers who are denied boarding involuntarily from flights on which they hold confirmed reserved space a copy of the following written statement: COMPENSATION FOR DENIED BOARDING If you have been denied a reserved seat on Air Canada, you are probably entitled to monetary compensation. This notice explains the airline's obligations and the passenger's rights in the case of an oversold flight, in accordance with regulations of the U.S. Civil Aeronautics Board. VOLUNTEERS AND BOARDING PRIORITIES If a flight is oversold (more passengers hold confirmed reservations than there are seats available), no one may be denied boarding against his will until airline personnel first ask for volunteers who will give up their reservations willingly, in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, other passengers may be denied boarding involuntarily, beginning with the last passenger to arrive at the ticket lift point, except passengers travelling due to death or illness of a member of the passenger's family, aged passengers or unaccompanied children. COMPENSATION FOR INVOLUNTARY DENIED BOARDING If you are denied boarding involuntarily, you are entitled to a payment of "denied boarding compensation" from the airline unless (1) you have not fully complied with the airline's ticketing, check-in, and reconfirmation requirements, or you are not acceptable to transportation under the airline's tariff filed with the C.A.B.; or (2) you are denied boarding because the flight is cancelled; or (3) because a smaller capacity aircraft was substituted for safety or operational reasons; or (4) you are offered accommodations in a section of the aircraft other than that specified in your ticket, at no extra charge. (A passenger seated in a section for which a lower fare is charged must be given an appropriate refund). AMOUNT OF DENIED BOARDING COMPENSATION Passengers who are eligible for denied boarding compensation must be offered a payment equal to the sum of the face values of their ticket coupons, with a USD 200.00 maximum. However, if the airline cannot arrange "alternate transportation" (see below) for the passenger, the compensation is doubled (USD 400.00 one way maximum). The "value" of a ticket coupon is the one way fare for the flight shown on the coupon, including any surcharge and air transportation tax, minus any applicable discount. All flight coupons, including connecting flights, to the passenger's destination or first 4-hour stopover are used to compute the compensation. "Alternate transportation" is air transportation provided an airline licensed by the C.A.B. or other transportation used by the passenger which, at the time the arrangement is made, is planned to arrive at the passenger's next scheduled stopover (of 4 hours or longer) or destination no later than 4 hours after the passenger's originally scheduled arrival time. METHOD OF PAYMENT The airline must give each passenger who qualifies for denied boarding compensation, a payment by check or draft for the amount specified above, on the day and place the involuntary denied boarding occurs. SECTION III — REFUNDS AND REROUTING

(A) (Continued)

(4) Public Notice Of Denied Boarding Compensation and Boarding Priorities:

The carrier shall furnish passengers who are denied boarding from flights on which they hold confirmed reservations, immediately after the denied boarding occurs, the following explanation:

Compensation For Denied Boarding

If you have been denied a reserved seat on SABENA you are probably entitled to monetary compensation. This notice explains the airline's obligations and the passenger's rights in the case of an oversold flight, in accordance with regulations of the U.S. Civil Aeronautics Board.

Volunteers And Boarding Priorities

If a flight is oversold (more passengers hold confirmed reservations than there are seats available), no one may be denied boarding against his will until airline personnel first ask for volunteers who will give up their reservations willingly, in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, other passengers may be denied boarding involuntarily, in accordance with the boarding priority of SABENA. Should it become necessary to off-load passengers, then off-loading will be made in the following order:

- (a) Connecting full revenue passengers without confirmed reservation beyond Brussels.
- (b) Local boarding full revenue passengers holding confirmed reserved space in order of appearance at the airport check-in facilities.
- (c) Connecting full revenue passengers holding confirmed transatlantic reservation.
- (d) Hardship cases as determined by the Manager on duty.
- (e) Sick and handicapped passengers.
- (f) Carrier's crew members travelling on a positive space basis for operational reasons.

Compensation For Involuntary Denied Boarding

If you are denied boarding involuntarily, you are entitled to a payment of "denied boarding compensation" from the airline unless (1) you have not fully complied with the airline's ticketing, check-in, and reconfirmations requirements, or you are not acceptable for transportation under the airline's usual rules and practices; or (2) you are denied boarding because the flight is canceled; or (3) you are denied boarding because a smaller capacity aircraft was substituted for safety or operational reasons; or (4) you are offered accommodations in a section of the aircraft other than that specified in your ticket at no extra charge (A passenger seated in a section for which a lower fare is charged must be given an appropriate refund.); or (5) the airline is able to place you on another flight or flights that are planned to reach your final destination within one hour of the scheduled arrival of your original flight.

Amount Of Denied Boarding Compensation

Passengers who are eligible for denied boarding compensation must be offered a payment equal to the sum of the face values of their ticket coupons, with a $200.00 maximum. However, if the airline cannot arrange alternate transportation (see below) for the passenger, the compensation is doubled ($400 maximum). The value of a ticket coupon is the one-way fare for the flight shown on the coupon, including any surcharge and air transportation tax, minus any applicable discount. All flight coupons, including connecting flights, to the passenger's destination or first 4 hour stopover are used to compute the compensation.

"Alternate transportation" is air transportation (by any airline licensed by the C.A.B.) or other transportation used by the passenger which, at the time the arrangement is made, is planned to arrive at the passenger's next scheduled stopover (of 4 hours or longer) or destination no later than 4 hours after the passenger's originally scheduled arrival time.

Method Of Payment

The airline must give each passenger who qualified for denied boarding compensation, a payment by check or draft for the amount specified above, on the day and place the involuntary denied boarding occurs. However, if the airline arranges alternate transportation for the passenger's convenience that departs before the payment can be made, the payment will be sent to the passenger within 24 hours.

Passenger's Options

Acceptance of the compensation (by endorsing the check or draft within 30 days) relieves SABENA from any further liability to the passenger caused by its failure to honor the confirmed reservations. However, the passenger may decline the payment and seek to recover damages in a court of law or in some other manner.

C#93 DENIED BOARDING COMPENSATION (Applicable to tX and QF for flights originating in Canada to points outside the U.S.A.)

(C) TRANSPORTATION FOR PASSENGER DENIED BOARDING
When the carrier is unable to provide previously confirmed space the carrier causing the passenger to be delayed will provide transportation to persons who have been denied boarding, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, in accordance with the provisions below.

(1) Carrier will transport the passenger without stopover on its next flight on which space is available at no additional cost to the passenger regardless of class of service.

(2) If the carrier causing such delay is unable to provide onward transportation acceptable to the passenger, any other carrier or combination of carriers, at the request of the passenger, will transport the passenger without stopover on its (their) next flight(s) in the same class of service as the passenger's original outbound flight, or if space is available on a flight(s) of a different class of service acceptable to the passenger, such flight(s) will be used without stopover at no additional cost to the passenger only if it (they) will provide an earlier arrival at the passenger's destination, next stopover point, or transfer point.

(D) COMPENSATION FOR INVOLUNTARY DENIED BOARDING
In addition to providing transportation as described in paragraph (C) above, when the passenger who is delayed has not voluntarily relinquished confirmed reserved space in accordance with provisions in paragraph (A) above, the carrier causing the delay will compensate the delayed passenger for the carrier's failure to provide confirmed space. Compensation will be made in accordance with the provisions below:

(1) Conditions for Payment

(a) ~~CANCELLED~~

(b) (tX) The passenger holds a ticket coupon closed to a specified QF flight irrespective of where the ticket was issued and must present himself for carriage at the appropriate time and place, having complied fully with the carrier's requirements as to ticketing, check-in, and reconfirmation procedures and having met all requirements for acceptance for transportation published in carrier's tariff.

(c) The flight for which the passenger holds confirmed reserved space must be unable to accommodate the passenger and departs without him.

EXCEPTION 1: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if the flight on which he holds confirmed reserved space is unable to accommodate him because of government requisition of space or substitution of equipment of lesser capacity when required by operational or safety reasons.

EXCEPTION 2: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if he is offered accommodations or is seated in a section of the aircraft other than that specified on his ticket at no extra charge. If a passenger is seated in a section for which a lower fare applies the passenger shall be entitled to an appropriate refund.
