SECTION III - REFUNDS AND REROUTING

80

REVISED ROUTINGS, FAILURE TO CARRY AND MISSED CONNECTIONS (Continued)(B) CHANGES REQUESTED BY PASSENGER (Continued)(2) Method of Effecting Change

The change requested by the passenger shall be effected by:

(a) endorsement of such unused ticket, flight coupon(s), or exchange order to the new receiving carrier or

(b) reticketing of the passenger.

(3) Applicable Fare

(a) (Applicable to AZ, EI, FF, NZ, QF, SK, SN, and TZ only)

The fare and charges applicable as a result of any such change in routing, destination, or carrier shall be the fare and charges that would have been applicable if transportation had been purchased as of the date of commencement of carriage; provided that,

(i) additional passage at the through fare shall not be permitted unless request has been made prior to arrival at the destination named on the original ticket or Miscellaneous Charges Order, and

(ii) after the carriage has commenced, a one way ticket shall not be converted into a round trip or circle trip ticket at the round trip or circle trip discount for any portion already flown; and

(iii) after carriage has commenced a round trip ticket can be converted into a circle trip ticket, or vice versa provided that request is made prior to the passenger's arrival at the destination named on the original ticket or Miscellaneous Charges Order.

(b) (Applicable to AZ, EI, FF, NZ, PH, QF, SK, SN and TZ only.) Any difference between the fare and charges applicable under subparagraph (A) above, and the fare and charges paid by the passenger will be collected from the passenger by the carrier accomplishing the rerouting, who will also pay to the passenger any amounts due on account of refunds or arrange for the applicable refund by the carrier that issued the original ticket. (See also Rule 60.)

SECTION III - REFUNDS AND REROUTING

REVISED ROUTINGS, FAILURE TO CARRY AND MISSED CONNECTIONS (Continued)*(C) INVOLUNTARY REVISED ROUTINGS

- (1) In the event carrier cancels a flight, fails to operate according to schedule, fails to stop at a point to which the passenger is destined or is ticketed to stop over, substitutes a different type of equipment or class or service, denies boarding to a passenger holding a confirmed reservation because there is insufficient space on the flight to accommodate him, induces a passenger to surrender voluntarily his confirmed reserved space so that another passenger is not denied boarding involuntarily, or removes or refuses passage to a passenger in accordance with Rule 25, carrier will either:
- (a) carry the passenger on another of its passenger aircraft on which space is available without additional charge regardless of the class of service; or
  - (b) endorse to another carrier or other transportation service, the unused portion of the ticket for purposes of rerouting; or
  - (c) reroute the passenger to the destination named on the ticket or applicable portion thereof by its own or other transportation services; and, if the fare, excess baggage charges, and any applicable service charge for the revised routing or class of service is higher than the refund value of the ticket or applicable portion thereof as determined by Rule 90, carrier will require no additional payment from the passenger, but will refund the difference if it is lower; or
- EXCEPTION 1: (Applicable to QF only.) If the fare, excess baggage charges and any applicable service charge exceeds the refund value of the ticket or applicable portions as determined from Rule 90, passengers who do not hold first class, business class, or normal economy class tickets will not be involuntarily rerouted without collection of such excess amount.
- EXCEPTION 2: (Applicable to AZ only.) In the case of upgrading to a higher class of service on AZ for which space is available, AZ will only upgrade economy class passengers to business class service.
- (d) (Not applicable to EI.)
    - (i) Transport the passenger on another economy flight on which space is available or
    - (ii) Transport the passenger to the destination shown on its portion of the ticket on carrier's next First Class flight on which space is available, at no additional fare, if so doing will provide an earlier arrival than the next economy flight on which space is available.
  - (e) Make involuntary refund in accordance with Rule 90(D).

RULE

SECTION III - REFUNDS AND REROUTING

C86

[C] DENIED BOARDING COMPENSATION (Applicable only to OS flights between Europe and Canada)

- (A) The following rules in compliance with EC-regulation 261/2004 of the European parliament and of the council shall apply:
- (1) In respect of flights departing from airport in the EU, and flights operated by a community air carrier departing from an airport in a third country to an airport in the EU (unless passenger received benefits or compensation and were given assistance in that third country);
  - (2) On conditions that the passengers have a confirmed reservation on the flight concerned and present themselves for check-in at the time indicated;
  - (3) Only to passengers traveling at a fare available directly or indirectly to the public, or on tickets issued under a frequent flyer programme or other commercial programme;
  - (4) Where OS is the operating carrier of the flight

An operating carrier denying boarding shall provide each passenger with a written notice setting out the rules for compensation and assistance in line with the EC regulation as referred to above.

(B) DENIED BOARDING

Denied boarding is a refusal by an airline to carry a passenger on a flight, even though the passenger has presented him or herself for boarding under the conditions mentioned above under the heading applicability, except where there are reasonable grounds to deny boarding, such as reasons of health, safety, security or inadequate travel documentation.

- (1) request for volunteers
  - (a) OS will call for volunteers from among the confirmed passengers to surrender their reservations, in exchange for benefits under conditions to be agreed upon between the passenger and OS, additionally the choice between reimbursement and rerouting with the following options:
    - (i) reimbursement within 7 days of coupons not used or
    - (ii) Rerouting to final destination at the earliest opportunity under comparable transport conditions or
    - (iii) Rerouting to final destination at a later date according to passenger's convenience but subject to availability of space.
  - (b) Once a passenger has voluntarily relinquished his seat, he will not later be involuntarily denied boarding unless he was advised at the time he volunteered of such possibility and the benefits conditions as under (2).
- (2) Involuntary Denied Boarding

If an insufficient number of volunteers come forward, OS may deny boarding to passengers against their will following the OS boarding priority policy. Passenger who are denied boarding involuntarily are entitled to the following:

  - (a) A denied boarding compensation
    - (i) EUR 250 for all flights of 1500 km or less;
    - (ii) EUR 400 for all flights between 1500 and 3500 km
    - (iii) EUR 600 for all flights exceeding 3500 km

When passengers are offered a re-routing on an alternative flight and the arrival time of the re-routed flight lies within a certain time frame the compensation is reduced by 50% in determining the distance, the basis shall be the last destination at which the denial of boarding will delay the passenger's arrival after the scheduled time. The distance shall be measured by the great circle route method.
  - (b) And a Choice Between
    - (i) Reimbursement of the full cost of ticket within 7 days, at the price at which it was bought, for for the part or part of the journey not made, and for the part or parts already made if the flight is no longer serving any purpose in relation to the passenger original travel plan; or
    - (ii) Re-routing, under comparable transport conditions, to passenger's final destination, at the earliest opportunity; or
    - (iii) Re-routing, under comparable transport conditions, to the passenger's final destination at a later date at the passenger's convenience, subject to availability of seats.
  - (c) And the following free of charge
    - (i) Meals and refreshments in a reasonable relations to the waiting time, and
    - (ii) Hotel accommodation in cases, where an unscheduled stay of one or more nights becomes necessary, and
    - (iii) Transport between the airport and place of accommodation, and
    - (iv) 2 phone calls, telex or fax messages, or e-mails.

RULE SECTION III - REFUNDS AND REROUTING

87 DENIED BOARDING COMPENSATION (Not applicable to AZ, OS or SN.)
 When the carrier is unable to provide previously confirmed space due to more passengers holding confirmed reservations and tickets on a flight than there are available seats on that flight, the carrier will take the actions specified in the provisions of this rule.

(A) DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this rule, definitions of the following terms are as indicated.

- (1) Airport
  - (a) Via SU: is that at which the direct or connecting flight on which passenger holds confirmed and ticketed reservations is scheduled to arrive.
  - (b) Via other than SU: means the airport at which the direct or connecting flight, on which the passenger holds confirmed reserved space, is planned to arrive or some other airport serving the same metropolitan area, provided that transportation to the other airport is accepted (i.e., used) by the passenger.
- (2) Alternate transportation (Via other than SU) means air transportation (by an airline licensed by the C.A.B.) or other transportation used by the passenger which, at the time the arrangement is made, is planned to arrive at the passenger's next scheduled stopover (of 4 hours or longer) or final destination no later than 4 hours after the passenger's originally scheduled arrival time.
- (3) Carrier
  - (a) Via SU: means an air carrier, except a helicopter operator, holding a commercial air service license issued by the Department of Transportation authorizing the transportation of persons.
  - (b) Via other than SU: means (a) a direct air carrier, except a helicopter operator, holding a certificate issued by the Board pursuant to section 401(d)(1), 401(d)(2), 401(d)(5) or 401(d)(8) of the Act or an exemption from section 401(a) of the Act, authorizing the transportation of persons or (b) a foreign route air carrier holding a permit issued by the Board pursuant to Section 402 of the Act or an exemption from section 402 of the Act, authorizing the scheduled foreign air transportation of persons.
- (4) Comparable air transportation means transportation provided to passengers at no extra cost by a carrier as defined above.
- (5) Via SU: Confirmed air space (reservations) is that which applies to a specific SU flight, date and fare type as requested by a passenger and which is verified in SU reservation system and is so noted on his ticket.
- (6) Confirmed reserved space (via other than SU) means space on a specific date and on a specific flight and class of service of a carrier which has been requested by a passenger and which the carrier or its agent has verified, by appropriate notation on the ticket or in any other manner provided therefore by the carrier as being reserved for the accommodation of the passenger.
- (7) Large aircraft (via other than SU) means any aircraft that has a passenger capacity of more than 60 seats.
- (8) Via SU: Oversold is that condition which is the result of there being more passengers with confirmed reservations and tickets than there are seats available on a flight.
- (9) Stopover
  - (a) Via SU: is a deliberate interruption of journey requested by the passenger which is scheduled to exceed 24 hours at a place between the points of origin and destination.
  - (b) Via other than SU: means a deliberate interruption of a journey by the passenger, scheduled to exceed four hours, at a point between the place of departure and the place of destination.
- (10) Sum of the values of the remaining flight coupons (via other than SU) means the sum of the applicable one-way fares, including any surcharges and air transportation taxes, less any applicable discounts.
- (11) Ticket lifting point/Boarding area (via other than SU) means the point where the passenger's flight coupon is lifted and retained by the carrier.
- +C(12) Volunteer Via SU: means a person who responds to carrier's request for volunteers and who willingly accepts carrier's offer of compensation, in any amount, in exchange for relinquishing his confirmed reserved space. Any other passenger denied boarding is considered for the purposes of this rule to have been denied boarding involuntarily, even if he/she accepts denied boarding compensation.
- +C(13) Denied boarding involuntarily Via SU: means refusal to receive the passenger for transportation for the reason of lack of space on an SU flight despite the passenger having a valid ticket and a confirmed reservation for the flight when the passenger arrived in due time and order for check-in.

PART 4 - VIA CO

(Applicable for flights originating in the U.S.A. only.)

(A) REQUEST FOR VOLUNTEERS

The carrier will request passengers who are willing to do so, to voluntarily relinquish their confirmed reserved space in exchange for compensation in an amount determined by the carrier. If a passenger is asked to volunteer, the carrier will not later deny boarding to that passenger involuntarily unless that passenger was informed at the time he was asked to volunteer that there was a possibility of being denied boarding involuntarily and of the amount of compensation to which he would have been entitled in that event. The request for volunteers and the selection of such persons to be denied space shall be in a manner determined solely by the carrier.

NOTE: In exchange for voluntarily relinquishing confirmed space, carrier may, at its option, offer to compensate the passenger with a credit voucher valid for the purchase of future transportation on CO in lieu of monetary compensation. The credit voucher shall be valid for travel only on CO within one year from the date of issue and shall be non-refundable, non-endorsable, and non-transferable.

(B) BOARDING PRIORITIES

If a flight is oversold (more passengers hold confirmed reservations than there are seats available), no one may be denied boarding against his will until airline personnel first ask for volunteers who will give up their reservations willingly, in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, other passengers may be denied boarding involuntarily, in accordance with the boarding priority of the specific carrier. The boarding priorities are provided below.

NOTE: The boarding priorities as presented below will appear in the Notice provided to passengers denied boarding (see paragraph (E) below).

Passengers will be denied boarding in the following order:

- (1) Passengers traveling at reduced rate positive space pursuant to Rules 205 (FREE AND REDUCED RATE TRANSPORTATION FOR AGENTS) and 210 (FREE AND REDUCED FARE TRANSPORTATION FOR TOUR CONDUCTORS).
- (2) Confirmed revenue passengers, regardless of the fare paid.
- (3) Passengers, regardless of fare paid, who are physically handicapped to an extent that failure to carry would cause a severe hardship, or any other passenger, including unaccompanied minors under 12 years of age, who would suffer a severe hardship.

(C) TRANSPORTATION FOR PASSENGER DENIED BOARDING

When the carrier is unable to provide previously confirmed space the carrier causing the passenger to be delayed will provide transportation to persons who have been denied boarding, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, in accordance with the provisions below.

- (1) Carrier will transport the passenger without stopover on its next flight on which space is available at no additional cost to the passenger regardless of class of service.
- (2) If the carrier causing such delay is unable to provide onward transportation acceptable to the passenger, any other carrier or combination of carriers, at the request of the passenger, will transport the passenger without stopover on its (their) next flight(s) in the same class of service as the passenger's original outbound flight, or if space is available on a flight(s) of a different class of service acceptable to the passenger, such flight(s) will be used without stopover at no additional cost to the passenger only if it (they) will provide an earlier arrival at the passenger's destination, next stopover point, or transfer point.

(D) COMPENSATION FOR INVOLUNTARY DENIED BOARDING

In addition to providing transportation as described in paragraph (C) above, when the passenger who is delayed has not voluntarily relinquished confirmed reserved space in accordance with provisions in paragraph (A) above, the carrier causing the delay will compensate the delayed passenger for the carrier's failure to provide confirmed space. Compensation will be made in accordance with the provisions below.

(1) Conditions for Payment

- (a) The passenger holding a ticket for confirmed space must present himself for carriage at the appropriate time and place, having complied fully with the carrier's requirements as to ticketing, check-in, and reconfirmation procedures and having met all requirements for acceptance for transportation published in carrier's tariff.
- (b) The flight for which the passenger holds confirmed reserved space must be unable to accommodate the passenger and departs without him.

EXCEPTION 1: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if he is offered accommodations or is seated in a section of the aircraft other than that specified on his ticket at no extra charge. If a passenger is seated in a section for which a lower fare applies the passenger shall be entitled to an appropriate refund.

EXCEPTION 2: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if his reservation has been cancelled pursuant to Rule 60(P)--Check-In Time Limits.

EXCEPTION 3: Employees of the carrier or of other carriers traveling on a reduced rate basis. These employees are not eligible to denied boarding compensation.

EXCEPTION 4: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if the flight on which he holds confirmed reserved space is unable to accommodate him because of substitution of equipment of lesser capacity when required by operational or safety reason.

EXCEPTION 5: Carrier will not offer such compensation if comparable air transportation is arranged which is scheduled to arrive at the passenger's next stopover or destination within one hour of the originally scheduled arrival time.

(2) Amount of Compensation

Subject to the provisions of paragraph (D)(1) above, the carrier will tender to passengers involuntarily denied boarding on flights originating in the U.S. liquidated damages in the amount of 200% of the sum of the values of the passenger's remaining flight coupons of the ticket to the passenger's next stopover or destination to a maximum of USD 400.00. However, the compensation shall be 50% of the amount described above to a maximum of USD 200.00 if the carrier arranges for comparable air transportation that is scheduled to arrive at the passenger's next stopover or destination at a point outside the United States within four hours of the originally scheduled arrival time.

(3) Time of Offer of Compensation

The offer of compensation will be made by the carrier on the day and at the place where the failure to provide confirmed reserved space occurs, and, if accepted, will be receipted for by the passenger. Provided, however, that when the carrier arranges, for the passenger's convenience, alternate means of transportation that departs prior to the time the offer can be made to the passenger, the offer shall be made by mail or other means within 24 hours after the time the failure occurs.

(E) NOTICE PROVIDED PASSENGERS

The following written notice shall be provided all passengers who are denied boarding involuntarily on flights on which they hold confirmed reserved space. Blanks that appear in parentheses in the notice below will be completed in the actual notice provided passengers, with the full name of the applicable carrier and with the carrier's specific boarding priorities.

NOTE: For the purpose of this rule, specific boarding priorities are provided in paragraph (B) above.

COMPENSATION FOR DENIED BOARDING

If you have been denied a reserved seat on ( ) Airlines, you are probably entitled to monetary compensation. This notice explains the airline's obligations and the passenger's rights in the case of an oversold flight, in accordance with regulations of the U.S. Civil Aeronautics Board.

VOLUNTEERS AND BOARDING PRIORITIES

If a flight is oversold (more passengers hold confirmed reservations than there are seats available), no one may be denied boarding against his will until airline personnel first ask for volunteers who will give up their reservations willingly, in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, other passengers may be denied boarding involuntarily, in accordance with the following boarding priority of ( ) Airlines: ( )

(Applicable for travel between points in Area 1 and Areas 2/3.) Passengers with highest priority, as listed below, will be the last to be involuntarily denied boarding. Passengers within any category will be boarded in the order of presenting themselves for check-in.

- (i) Passengers, regardless of the fare paid, who are physically handicapped to an extent that failure to carry would cause a severe hardship, or any other passenger, including unaccompanied minors under 12 years of age, who would suffer a severe hardship.
- (ii) Confirmed revenue passengers, regardless of the fare paid.
- (iii) Passengers traveling at reduced rate positive space.

NOTE: Accompanied children under 12 years of age have the same priority as the adult passenger who is accompanying them.

COMPENSATION FOR INVOLUNTARY DENIED BOARDING

If you are denied boarding involuntarily, you are entitled to a payment of "denied boarding compensation" from the airline unless (1) you have not fully complied with the airline's ticketing, check-in, and reconfirmation requirements, or you are not acceptable for transportation under the airline's tariff filed with the C.A.B.; or (2) you are denied boarding because the flight is cancelled; or (3) you are denied boarding because a smaller capacity aircraft was substituted for safety or operational reasons; or (4) you are offered accommodations in a section of the aircraft other than that specified in your ticket, at no extra charge. (A passenger seated in a section for which a lower fare is charged must be given an appropriate refund.); (5) the airline is able to place you on another flight, or flights that are planned to reach your destination within one hour of the scheduled arrival of your original flight; or (6) you are involuntarily denied boarding on any flight originating outside the United States.

AMOUNT OF DENIED BOARDING COMPENSATION

Passengers who are eligible for denied boarding compensation must be offered a payment equal to the sum of the face values of their ticket coupons, with a USD/FCU 200.00 maximum. However, if the airline cannot arrange "alternate transportation" (see below) for the passenger, the compensation is doubled (USD/FCU 400.00 maximum). The "value" of a ticket coupon is the one way fare for the flight shown on the coupon, including any surcharge and air transportation tax, minus any applicable discount. All flight coupons, including connecting flights, to the passenger's destination or first 4-hour stopover are used to compute the compensation. "Alternate transportation" is air transportation provided by an airline licensed by the C.A.B. or other transportation used by the passenger which, at the time the arrangement is made, is planned to arrive at the passenger's next scheduled stopover (of 4 hours or longer) or destination no later than 4 hours after the passenger's originally scheduled arrival time.

METHOD OF PAYMENT

The airline must give each passenger who qualifies for denied boarding compensation, a payment by check or draft for the amount specified above, on the day and place the involuntary denied boarding occurs. However, if the airline arranges alternate transportation for the passenger's convenience that departs before the payment can be made, the payment will be sent to the passenger within 24 hours. The air carrier may offer free tickets in place of the cash payment. The passenger may, however insist on the cash payment, or refuse all compensation and bring private legal action.

PASSENGER'S OPTIONS

Acceptance of the compensation (by endorsing the check or draft within 30 days) relieves ( ) Airlines from any further liability to the passenger caused by its failure to honor the confirmed reservation. However, the passenger may decline the payment and seek to recover damages in a court of law or in some other manner.

PART 9 - VIA FF
 (Applicable for flights originating in the U.S.A.)

(A) REQUEST FOR VOLUNTEERS

The carrier will request passengers who are willing to do so, to voluntarily relinquish their confirmed reserved space in exchange for compensation in an amount determined by the carrier. If a passenger is asked to volunteer, the carrier will not later deny boarding to that passenger involuntarily unless that passenger was informed at the time he was asked to volunteer that there was a possibility of being denied boarding involuntarily and of the amount of compensation to which he would have been entitled in that event. The request for volunteers and the selection of such persons to be denied space shall be in a manner determined solely by the carrier.

NOTE: In exchange for voluntarily relinquishing confirmed space, carrier may at its option, compensate the passenger with credit valid for the purchase of transportation on carrier in lieu of monetary compensation.

(B) BOARDING PRIORITIES

If a flight is oversold (more passengers hold confirmed reservations than there are seats available), no one may be denied boarding against his will until airline personnel first ask for volunteers who will give up their reservations willingly in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, other passengers may be denied boarding involuntarily in accordance with the boarding priorities set forth below.

NOTE: The boarding priorities as presented herewith will appear in the Notice provided to passengers denied boarding (see paragraph (E) below).

Carrier will board passengers holding confirmed reservations in the following order:

- (1) Handicapped passengers and their escorts;
- (2) Unaccompanied children under twelve (12) years of age;
- (3) Carrier's crew members traveling on a positive space basis for operational reasons.
- (4) Carrier's ground personnel needed for emergency repairs on an aircraft grounded at another point.
- (5) Passengers travelling with infants.
- (6) All other passengers in order of the time they checked in from the earliest to the latest.

(C) TRANSPORTATION FOR PASSENGER DENIED BOARDING

When the carrier is unable to provide previously confirmed space the carrier causing the passenger to be delayed will provide transportation to persons who have been denied boarding, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, in accordance with the provisions below.

- (1) Carrier will transport the passenger without stopover on its next flight on which space is available at no additional cost to the passenger regardless of class of service.
- (2) If the carrier causing such delay is unable to provide onward transportation acceptable to the passenger, any other carrier or combination of carriers, at the request of the passenger, will transport the passenger without stopover on its (their) next flight(s) in the same class of service as the passenger's original outbound flight, or if space is available on a flight(s) of a different class of service acceptable to the passenger, such flight(s) will be used without stopover at no additional cost to the passenger only if it (they) will provide an earlier arrival at the passenger's destination, next stopover point, or transfer point.

(D) COMPENSATION FOR INVOLUNTARY DENIED BOARDING

In addition to providing transportation as described in paragraph (C) above, when the passenger who is delayed has not voluntarily relinquished confirmed reserved space in accordance with provisions in paragraph (A) above, the carrier causing the delay will compensate the delayed passenger for the carrier's failure to provide confirmed space. Compensation will be made in accordance with the provisions below.

(1) Conditions for Payment

- (a) The passenger holding a ticket for confirmed space must present himself for carriage at the appropriate time and place, having complied fully with the carrier's requirements as to ticketing, check-in, and reconfirmation procedures and having met all requirements for acceptance for transportation published in carrier's tariff.
- (b) The flight for which the passenger holds confirmed reserved space must be unable to accommodate the passenger and departs without him.

EXCEPTION 1: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if the flight on which he holds confirmed reserved space is unable to accommodate him because of substitution of equipment of a lesser capacity when required by operational or safety reasons.

EXCEPTION 2: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if he is offered accommodations or is seated in a section of the aircraft other than that specified on his ticket at no extra charge. If a passenger is seated in a section for which a lower fare applies the passenger shall be entitled to an appropriate refund.

(2) Passengers holding free or reduced fare tickets, entitled to firm booking, issued by EI, with exception of crew and dead heading crew.          (3) Full revenue passengers, by considering lowest fare-type passengers first and highest fare-type passengers last, in the following sequence:          (a) Super APEX and Regular APEX passengers,          (b) All other promotional fare passengers,          (c) Normal fare passengers,          except that unaccompanied minors, incapacitated passengers and elderly passengers, especially with language problems, shall not be considered for removal. (C) TRANSPORTATION FOR PASSENGER DENIED BOARDING          When the carrier is unable to provide previously confirmed space the carrier causing the passenger to be delayed will provide transportation to persons who have been denied boarding, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, in accordance with the provisions below:          (1) Carrier will transport the passenger without stopover on its next flight on which space is available at no additional cost to the passenger regardless of class of service.          (2) If the carrier causing such delay is unable to provide onward transportation acceptable to the passenger, any other carrier or combination of carriers at the request of the passenger, will transport the passenger without stopover on its/their next flight(s) in the same class of service as the passenger's original outbound flight, or if space is available on a flight(s) of a different class of service acceptable to the passenger, such flight(s) will be used without stopover at no additional cost to the passenger only if it/they will provide an earlier arrival at the passenger's destination, next stopover point, or transfer point. (D) COMPENSATION FOR INVOLUNTARY DENIED BOARDING          In addition to providing transportation as described in paragraph (C) above, when the passenger who is delayed has not voluntarily relinquished confirmed reserved space in accordance with provisions in paragraph (A) above, the carrier causing the delay will compensate the delayed passenger for the carrier's failure to provide confirmed space. Compensation will be made in accordance with the provisions below.          (1) Conditions for Payment          (a) The passenger holding a ticket for confirmed reserved space must present himself for carriage at the appropriate time and place, having complied fully with the carrier's requirements as to ticketing, check-in, and reconfirmation procedures and having met all requirements for acceptance for transportation published in carrier's tariff.          (b) The flight for which the passenger holds confirmed space must be unable to accommodate the passenger and departs without him.  EXCEPTION:          The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if:          (1) The flight upon which the passenger holds confirmed reserved space is unable to accommodate him because of:          (a) Cancellation of the flight; or          (b) Substitution of equipment of lesser capacity when required by operational and/or safety reasons; or          (2) Passenger is accommodated on the flight for which he holds confirmed reserved space, but is offered accommodations or is seated in a compartment of the aircraft other than that specified on his ticket, provided that a passenger seated in a section for which a lower fare is charged shall be entitled to an appropriate refund; or          (3) The carrier arranges comparable air transportation, or other transportation used by the passenger at no extra cost to the passenger, that at the time such arrangements are made is planned to arrive at the passenger's next stopover or, if none, final destination within 1 hour after the scheduled arrival time of the passenger's original flight or flights.          (4) The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if his/her reservation has been cancelled pursuant to Rule 60 (F)--Check-In Time Limits.          (5) Employees of the carrier or of other carriers traveling on a reduced rate basis. These employees are not eligible for denied boarding compensation.

(C)(2) Amount of Compensation

(a) Subject to provisions of paragraph (D) (1) above, the carrier will tender liquidated damages in the amount of 200 percent of the sum of the values of the passenger's remaining flight coupons of the ticket to the passenger's next stopover, or if none, to his/her destination, but not more than USD 400.00 only. However, the compensation shall be 50 percent of the amount described above, but not more than USD 200.00 only, the carrier arranges for comparable air transportation or for other transportation that is accepted. That is, transportation used by the passenger, which at the time either such arrangement is made, is planned to arrive at the airport of the passenger's next stopover or, if none, at the airport to the passenger's destination not later than 2 hours after the time the direct or connecting flight on which the confirmed space is held is planned to arrive in the case of foreign air transportation.

(3) Time of Offer of Compensation

The offer of compensation will be made by the carrier on the day and at the place where the failure to provide confirmed reserved space occurs, and, if accepted, will be receipted for by the passenger. Provided, however, that when the carrier arranges for the passenger's convenience, alternate means of transportation which departs prior to the time the offer can be made to the passenger, the offer shall be made by mail or other means within 24 hours after the time the failure occurs.

(E) NOTICE PROVIDED PASSENGERS

The following written notice shall be provided all passengers who are denied boarding involuntarily on flights on which they hold confirmed space.

COMPENSATION FOR DENIED BOARDING

If you have been denied a reserved seat on Aer Lingus, you are probably entitled to monetary compensation. This notice explains the airline's obligation and the passenger's rights in the case of an oversold flight, in accordance with regulations of the U.S. Department of Transportation.

VOLUNTEERS AND BOARDING PRIORITIES

If a flight is oversold (more passengers hold confirmed reservations than there are seats available) no one may be denied boarding against his will until airline personnel first ask for volunteers who will give up their reservations willingly, in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, other passengers may be denied boarding involuntarily, in accordance with the following boarding priority:

- (a) Passengers holding free or reduced fare tickets, entitled to firm booking, issued by other airlines.
- (b) Passengers holding free or reduced fare tickets, entitled to firm booking, issued by EI, with exception of crew and dead heading crew.
- (c) Full revenue passengers, by considering lowest fare-type passengers first and highest fare-type passengers last, in the following sequence:
  - (i) Super APEX and Regular APEX passengers,
  - (ii) All other promotional fare passengers,
  - (iii) Normal fare passengers;
 except that unaccompanied minors, incapacitated passengers and elderly passengers, especially with language problems, shall not be considered for removal.

COMPENSATION FOR DENIED BOARDING

If you have been denied a reserved seat on ( ) Airlines, you are probably entitled to monetary compensation. This notice explains the airline's obligations and the passenger's rights in the case of an oversold flight, in accordance with regulations of the U.S. Civil Aeronautics Board.

VOLUNTEERS AND BOARDING PRIORITIES

If a flight is oversold (more passengers hold confirmed reservations than there are seats available), no one may be denied boarding against his will until airline personnel first ask for volunteers who will give up their reservations willingly, in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, other passengers may be denied boarding involuntarily, in accordance with the following boarding priority of ( ) Airlines: ( )

(3)

COMPENSATION FOR INVOLUNTARY DENIED BOARDING

If you are denied boarding involuntarily, you are entitled to a payment of "denied boarding compensation" from the airline unless (1) you have not fully complied with the airline's ticketing, check-in, and reconfirmation requirements, or you are not acceptable for transportation under the airline's tariff filed with the C.A.B.; or (2) you are denied boarding because the flight is cancelled; or (3) you are denied boarding because a smaller capacity aircraft was substituted for safety or operational reasons; or (4) you are offered accommodations in a section of the aircraft other than that specified in your ticket, at no extra charge. (A passenger seated in a section for which a lower fare is charged must be given an appropriate refund.); or (5) the airline is able to place you on another flight(s) that are planned to reach your final destination within one hour of the scheduled arrival of your original flight.

AMOUNT OF DENIED BOARDING COMPENSATION

Passengers who are eligible for denied boarding compensation must be offered a payment equal to the sum of the face values of their ticket coupons, with a USD/FCU 200.00 maximum. However, if the airline cannot arrange "alternate transportation" (see below) for the passenger, the compensation is doubled (USD/FCU 400.00 maximum). The "value" of a ticket coupon is the one way fare for the flight shown on the coupon, including any surcharge and air transportation tax, minus any applicable discount. All flight coupons, including connecting flights, to the passenger's destination or first 4-hour stopover are used to compute the compensation. "Alternate transportation" is air transportation provided by an airline licensed by the C.A.B. or other transportation used by the passenger which, at the time the arrangement is made, is planned to arrive at the passenger's next scheduled stopover (of 4 hours or longer) or destination no later than 4 hours after the passenger's originally scheduled arrival time.

METHOD OF PAYMENT

The airline must give each passenger who qualifies for denied boarding compensation, a payment by check or draft for the amount specified above, on the day and place the involuntary denied boarding occurs. However, if the airline arranges alternate transportation for the passenger's convenience that departs before the payment can be made, the payment will be sent to the passenger within 24 hours. The air carrier may offer free tickets in place of the cash payment. The passenger may, however, insist on the cash payment, or refuse all compensation and bring private legal action.

If a passenger is asked to volunteer, the carrier will not later deny boarding to that passenger involuntarily unless that passenger was informed at the time he was asked to volunteer that there was a possibility of being denied boarding involuntarily and of the amount of compensation to which he would have been entitled in that event. The request for volunteers and the selection of such persons to be denied space shall be in a manner determined solely by the carrier. (B) BOARDING PRIORITIES                  If a flight is oversold (more passengers hold confirmed reservations than there are seats available), no one may be denied boarding against his will until airline personnel first ask for volunteers who will give up their reservations willingly, in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, other passengers may be denied boarding involuntarily, in accordance with the boarding priority of the specific carrier. The boarding priorities are provided below.  NOTE: The boarding priorities as presented below will appear in the Notice provided to passengers denied boarding (see paragraph (E) below).                  Carrier shall accommodate passengers in the order of their arrival time at the ticket lift point.  C

NOTE: The carrier will inform its passengers of its tariff rules concerning check-in time limits by publication in its public timetables and ticket envelopes, and that failure to comply with these rules will result in the cancellation of the passenger's reservation and will render him ineligible for denied boarding compensation.

(2) Amount of Compensation
 Subject to provisions of paragraph (D)(1) above, the carrier will tender liquidated damages in the amount of 200 percent of the sum of the values of the passenger's remaining flight coupons of the ticket to the passenger's next stopover, or if none, to his destination, but not more than USD 400.00, or, if the passenger wishes, a USD 500.00 voucher valid for the purchase of the TZ tickets. These vouchers are non-endorsable and non-refundable. The portion of a ticket paid by TZ Airline Check voucher shall remain non-refundable. However, the compensation shall be 50 percent of the amount described above, but not more than USD 200.00 (or TZ Airline Check voucher of USD 300.00) if the carrier arranges for comparable air transportation, or for other transportation that is accepted. That is, transportation used by the passenger, which, at the time either arrangement is made, is planned to arrive at the airport of the passenger's next stopover, or if none, at the airport of the passenger's destination earlier than or not later than four hours after the planned arrival at the airport of the passenger's next stopover, or if none, at the airport of the passenger's destination, of the flight on which the passenger holds a confirmed reservation.
EXCEPTION: If arrangements can be made for comparable air transportation that is planned to arrive at the passenger's next stopover or destination not later than two hours after the flight on which the passenger holds confirmed space, but such accommodations would be in a section of the aircraft other than the specified on the passenger's ticket and the passenger refuses to accept such accommodations (at no additional charge or subject to an appropriate refund), the carrier shall pay the passenger only such amount of denied boarding compensation as he would have received had he accepted such comparable air transportation.
NOTE: If the offer of compensation is made by the carrier and accepted by the passenger, such payment will constitute full compensation for all actual or anticipatory damages incurred or to be incurred by the passenger as a result of carrier's failure to provide passenger with confirmed reserved space.

(3) Time of Offer of Compensation
 The offer of compensation will be made by the carrier on the day and at the place where the failure to provide confirmed reserved space occurs, and, if accepted, will be receipted for by the passenger. Provided, however, that when the carrier arranges, for the passenger's convenience, alternate means of transportation that departs prior to the time the offer can be made to the passenger, the offer shall be made by mail or other means within 24 hours after the time the failure occurs.

(E) NOTICE PROVIDED PASSENGERS
 The following written notice shall be provided all passengers who are denied boarding involuntarily on flights on which they hold confirmed reserved space. Blanks that appear in parentheses in the notice below will be completed in the actual notice provided passengers, with the full name of the applicable carrier and with the carrier's specific boarding priorities.
NOTE: For the purpose of this rule, specific boarding priorities are provided in paragraph (B) above.

C87	(C) DENIED BOARDING COMPENSATION (Continued) PART 16 - VIA SK (Continued) (B) FLIGHT CANCELLATION (Continued) (7) Denied Boarding Resulting From Overbooking: Denied boarding is a refusal by an airline to carry a passenger on a flight, even though the passenger has presented himself or herself for boarding under the conditions mentioned above under the heading Applicability, except when there are reasonable grounds to deny boarding, such as reasons of health, safety, security or inadequate travel documentation. Before SK denies boarding for a flight we call for volunteers to surrender their reservations, in return for benefits under conditions to be agreed, see sep. note. If an insufficient number of volunteers come forward and we deny boarding to the passenger against their will, SK will immediately compensate the passenger as follows: (a) EUR 250 for all flights of 1500 km or less; (b) EUR 400 for all intra-community flights of more than 1500 kilometers, and for all other flights between 1500 and 3500 Kilometers; (c) EUR 600 for all flights not falling under a) or b). (8) When passengers are offered rerouting to their final destination on an alternative flight, the arrival time of which does not exceed the scheduled arrival time of the flight originally booked (a) by two hours, in respect of all flights of 1500 kilometers or less; or (b) by three hours, in respect of all intra-community flights of more than 1500 kilometers and for all other flights between 1500 and 3500 kilometers; or (c) by four hours, in respect of all flights not falling under a) or b), SK may reduce the compensation provided for by 50%. (9) In determining the distance, the basis shall be the last destination at which the denial of boarding will delay the passenger's arrival after the scheduled time. In addition, SK will offer the following: (a) A choice between: (i) reimbursement within seven days of the full cost of the ticket, at the price at which it was bought, for the part or parts of the journey not made, and for the parts already made if the flight is no longer serving any purpose in relation to the original travel plan together with, when relevant, a return flight to the first point of departure, at the earliest opportunity; or (ii) rerouting under comparable transport conditions, to the final destination, at the earliest opportunity; or (iii) rerouting, under comparable transport conditions, to final destination at a later date at the passenger's convenience, subject to availability of seats. (b) SK will offer free of charge: (i) meals and refreshments in a reasonable relation to the waiting time, and (ii) hotel accommodation in cases: .where a stay of one or more nights becomes necessary .where a stay additional to that intended by the passenger becomes necessary, and (iii) transport between the airport and place of accommodation, and (iv) two telephones call, telex or fax messages or emails. (10) Downgrading If SK places the passenger in a cabin class lower than for which the ticket was purchased the passenger is entitled to reimbursement to a certain percentage of the fare paid for the respective flight leg. Passenger may be offered a lump sum to cover compensation for downgrading or reimbursements as described below: (a) 30% of the price of the flight coupon for all flights of 1500 kilometers or less, or (b) 50% of the price of the flight coupon for all intra-community flights of more than 1500 kilometers, and for all other flights between 1500 and 3500 Kilometers, or (c) 75% of the price of the flight coupon for all flights not falling under a) or b). The compensation will be forwarded to the passenger within 7 days after the downgrading took place. This right does not apply to passengers travelling in a lower cabin class at their own convenience.

RULE	SECTION III - REFUNDS AND REROUTING
87 C	DENIED BOARDING COMPENSATION (Continued) PART 17 - VIA [C]NZ          (Applicable for flights originating in the U.S.A.) (A) REQUEST FOR VOLUNTEERS          The carrier will request passengers who are willing to do so, to voluntarily relinquish their confirmed reserved space in exchange for compensation in an amount determined by the carrier. If a passenger is asked to volunteer, the carrier will not later deny boarding to that passenger involuntarily unless that passenger was informed at the time he was asked to volunteer that there was a possibility of being denied boarding involuntarily and of the amount of compensation to which he would have been entitled in that event. The request for volunteers and the selection of such persons to be denied space shall be in a manner determined solely by the carrier. (B) BOARDING PRIORITIES          If a flight is oversold (more passengers hold confirmed reservations than there are seats available), no one may be denied boarding against his will until airline personnel first ask for volunteers who will give up their reservations willingly, in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, other passengers may be denied boarding involuntarily, in accordance with the boarding priority of the specific carrier. The boarding priorities are provided below.  NOTE: The boarding priorities as presented below will appear in the Notice provided to passengers denied boarding (see paragraph (E) below).          Carrier shall accommodate passengers in the order of their arrival time at the ticket lift point. Should it become necessary to deny boarding involuntarily, boarding shall be denied to the last passenger(s) to arrive at the ticket lift point, except that physically handicapped passengers, unaccompanied children and aged or infirm passengers may be excluded from the determination of which passengers shall be denied boarding. (C) TRANSPORTATION FOR PASSENGER DENIED BOARDING          When the carrier is unable to provide previously confirmed space the carrier causing the passenger to be delayed will provide transportation to persons who have been denied boarding, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, in accordance with the provisions below.          (1) Carrier will transport the passenger without stopover on its next flight on which space is available at no additional cost to the passenger regardless of class of service.          (2) If the carrier causing such delay is unable to provide onward transportation acceptable to the passenger, any other carrier or combination of carriers, at the request of the passenger, will transport the passenger without stopover on its (their) next flight(s) in the same class of service as the passenger's original outbound flight, or if space is available on a flight(s) of a different class of service acceptable to the passenger, such flight(s) will be used without stopover at no additional cost to the passenger only if it (they) will provide an earlier arrival at the passenger's destination, next stopover point, or transfer point. (D) COMPENSATION FOR INVOLUNTARY DENIED BOARDING          In addition to providing transportation as described in paragraph (C) above, when the passenger who is delayed has not voluntarily relinquished confirmed reserved space in accordance with provisions in paragraph (A) above, the carrier causing the delay will compensate the delayed passenger for the carrier's failure to provide confirmed space. Compensation will be made in accordance with the provisions below.          (1) Conditions for Payment          (a) The passenger holding a ticket for confirmed space must present himself for carriage at the appropriate time and place, having complied fully with the carrier's requirements as to ticketing, check-in, and reconfirmation procedures and having met all requirements for acceptance for transportation published in carrier's tariff.          (b) The flight for which the passenger holds confirmed reserved space must be unable to accommodate the passenger and departs without him.  EXCEPTION 1: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if the flight on which he holds confirmed reserved space is unable to accommodate him because of substitution of equipment of a lesser capacity when required by operational or safety reasons.  EXCEPTION 2: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if he is offered accommodations or is seated in a section of the aircraft other than that specified on his ticket at no extra charge. If a passenger is seated in a section for which a lower fare applies the passenger shall be entitled to an appropriate refund.  EXCEPTION 3: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if his reservation has been cancelled pursuant to Rule 60(F)--Check-In Time Limits.  EXCEPTION 4: Employees of the carrier or of other carriers traveling on a reduced rate basis. These employees are not eligible for denied boarding compensation.  EXCEPTION 5: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if placed on another flight(s) that is planned to reach the passenger's destination within one hour of the scheduled arrival of his/her original flight.

(D) COMPENSATION FOR INVOLUNTARY DENIED BOARDING (Continued)

NOTE: The carrier will inform its passenger of its tariff rules concerning check-in time limits by publication in its public timetables and ticket envelopes, and that failure to comply with these rules will result in the cancellation of the passenger's reservation and will render him ineligible for denied boarding compensation.

(2) Amount of Compensation

Subject to provisions of paragraph (D) (1) above, the carrier will tender liquidated damages in the amount of 200% of the sum of the values of the passenger's remaining flight coupons of the ticket to the passenger's next stopover, or if none, to his destination, but not more than USD 400.00. However, the compensation shall be 50% of the amount described above, but not more than USD 200.00 if the carrier arranges for comparable air transportation, or for other transportation that is accepted. That is, transportation used by the passenger, which, at the time either arrangement is made, is planned to arrive at the airport of the passenger's next stopover, or if none, at the airport of the passenger's destination earlier than, or not later than four hours after the planned arrival at the airport of the passenger's next stopover, or if none, at the airport of the passenger's destination, of the flight on which the passenger holds a confirmed reservation.

EXCEPTION: If arrangements can be made for comparable air transportation that is planned to arrive at the passenger's next stopover or destination not later than two hours after the flight on which the passenger holds confirmed space, but such accommodations would be in a section of the aircraft other than that specified on the passenger's ticket and the passenger refuses to accept such accommodations (at no additional charge or subject to an appropriate refund), the carrier shall pay the passenger only such amount of denied boarding compensation as he would have received had he accepted such comparable air transportation.

NOTE 1: If the offer of compensation is made by the carrier and accepted by the passenger, such payment will constitute full compensation for all actual or anticipatory damages incurred or to be incurred by the passenger as a result of carrier's failure to provide passenger with confirmed reserved space.

NOTE 2: Passengers who are offered such compensation will not be provided with the amenities and services offered under the provisions of Rule 95 to delayed passenger.

NOTE 3: At the passenger's option, [CJNZ may compensate the passenger with credit valid for transportation in lieu of monetary compensation. The amount of the credit offered shall be equal to or greater than the monetary compensation due to the passenger. The transportation credit will be valid for one year from the date of issue and will be non-refundable and non-transferable.

(3) Time of Offer of Compensation

The offer of compensation will be made by the carrier on the day and at the place where the failure to provide confirmed reserved space occurs, and, if accepted, will be receipted for by the passenger. Provided, however, that when the carrier arranges, for the passenger's convenience, alternate means of transportation that departs prior to the time the offer can be made to the passenger, the offer shall be made by mail or other means within 24 hours after the time the failure occurs.

(E) NOTICE PROVIDED PASSENGERS

The following written notice shall be provided all passengers who are denied boarding involuntarily on flights on which they hold confirmed reserved space. Blanks that appear in parentheses in the notice below will be completed in the actual notice provided passengers, with the full name of the applicable carrier and with the carrier's specific boarding priorities.

NOTE: For the purpose of this rule, specific boarding priorities are provided in paragraph (B) above.

COMPENSATION FOR DENIED BOARDING

If you have been denied a reserved seat on ( _____ ) Airlines, you are probably entitled to monetary compensation. This notice explains the airline's obligations and the passenger's rights in the case of an oversold flight, in accordance with regulations of the U.S. Civil Aeronautics Board.

If there are not enough volunteers, other passengers may be denied boarding involuntarily, in accordance with the following boarding priority of ( ) Airlines: (3) COMPENSATION FOR INVOLUNTARY DENIED BOARDING If you are denied boarding involuntarily, you are entitled to a payment of "denied boarding compensation" from the airline unless (1) you have not fully complied with the airline's ticketing, check-in, and reconfirmation requirements, or you are not acceptable for transportation under the airline's tariff filed with the C.A.B., or (2) you are denied boarding because the flight is cancelled; or (3) you are denied boarding because a smaller capacity aircraft was substituted for safety or operational reasons; or (4) you are offered accommodations in a section of the aircraft other than that specified in your ticket, at no extra charge. (A passenger seated in a section for which a lower fare is charged must be given an appropriate refund.); 1) or (5) the airline is able to place you on another flight(s) that are planned to reach your destination within one hour of the scheduled arrival of your original flight. (4) AMOUNT OF DENIED BOARDING COMPENSATION Passengers who are eligible for denied boarding compensation must be offered a payment equal to the sum of the face values of their ticket coupons, with a USD/FCU 200.00 maximum. However, if the airline cannot arrange "alternate transportation" (see below) for the passenger, the compensation is doubled (USD 400.00 maximum). The "value" of a ticket coupon is the one way fare for the flight shown on the coupon, including any surcharge and air transportation tax, minus any applicable discount. All flight coupons, including connecting flights, to the passenger's destination or first 4-hour stopover are used to compute the compensation. "Alternate transportation" is air transportation provided by an airline licensed by the C.A.B. or other transportation used by the passenger which, at the time the arrangement is made, is planned to arrive at the passenger's next scheduled stopover (of 4 hours or longer) or destination no later than 4 hours after the passenger's originally scheduled arrival time. (5) METHOD OF PAYMENT The airline must give each passenger who qualifies for denied boarding compensation, a payment by check or draft for the amount specified above, on the day and place the involuntary denied boarding occurs. However, if the airline arranges alternate transportation for the passenger's convenience that departs before the payment can be made, the payment will be sent to the passenger within 24 hours. The air carrier may offer you free tickets in place of the cash payment. The passenger may, however, insist on the cash payment, or refuse all compensation and bring private legal action. (6) PASSENGER'S OPTIONS Acceptance of the compensation (by endorsing the check or draft within 30 days) relieves ( ) Airlines from any further liability to the passenger caused by its failure to honor the confirmed reservation. (1) Conditions for Payment          (a) The passenger holding a ticket for confirmed space must present himself for carriage at the appropriate time and place, having complied fully with the carrier's requirements as to ticketing, check-in, and reconfirmation procedures and having met all requirements for acceptance for transportation published in carrier's tariff.          (b) The flight for which the passenger holds confirmed reserved space must be unable to accommodate the passenger and departs without him.  EXCEPTION 1: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if the flight on which he holds confirmed reserved space is unable to accommodate him because of substitution of equipment of a lesser capacity when required by operational or safety reasons.  EXCEPTION 2: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if he is offered accommodations or is seated in a section of the aircraft other than that specified on his ticket at no extra charge. These employees are not eligible for denied boarding compensation. EXCEPTION 5: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation when he/she is accommodated on an extra section flight scheduled to depart within 60 minutes of the scheduled departure time of the flight on which he/she held confirmed space, or if TW arranges other comparable air transportation or other transportation used by the passenger at no extra cost to the passenger, that is the time such arrangements are made, is planned to arrive at the passenger's next stopover, or if none, final destination within one hour after the planned arrival time of the passenger's original flight or flights. (2) Amount of Compensation  Subject to provisions of paragraph (D)(1) above, the carrier will tender liquidated damages in the amount of 200% of the sum of the values of the passenger's remaining flight coupons of the ticket to the passenger's next stopover, or if none, to his destination, with a USD/FCU 400.00 maximum. However, the compensation shall be 50% of the amount described above, but no more than USD/FCU 200.00, if the carrier arranges for comparable air transportation, or for other transportation that is accepted. That is, transportation used by the passenger, which, at the time either arrangement is made, is planned to arrive at the airport of the passenger's next stopover, or if none, at the airport of the passenger's destination earlier than, or not later than four hours after the planned arrival at the airport of the passenger's next stopover, or if none, at the airport of the passenger's destination, of the flight on which the passenger holds a confirmed reservation. EXCEPTION: If arrangements can be made for comparable air transportation that is planned to arrive at the passenger's next stopover or destination not later than two hours after the flight on which the passenger holds confirmed space, but such accommodations would be in a section of the aircraft other than that specified on the passenger's ticket and the passenger refuses to accept such accommodations (at no additional charge or subject to an appropriate refund), the carrier shall pay the passenger only such amount of denied boarding compensation as he would have received had he accepted such comparable air transportation. NOTE 1: If the offer of compensation is made by the carrier and accepted by the passenger, such payment will constitute full compensation for all actual or anticipatory damages incurred or to be incurred by the passenger as a result of carrier's failure to provide passenger with confirmed reserved space. NOTE 2: Passengers who are offered such compensation will not be provided with the amenities and services offered under the provisions of Rule 95 to delayed passengers. NOTE 3: At the passenger's option, carrier may compensate the passenger with credit valid for transportation in lieu of monetary compensation. The amount of the transportation credit offered shall be equal to or greater than the monetary compensation due the passenger and will be valid only for travel on TW. The transportation credit will be valid for one year from the date of issue and will be non-refundable and non-transferable. (3) Time of Offer of Compensation  The offer of compensation will be made by the carrier on the day and at the place where the failure to provide confirmed reserved space occurs, and, if accepted, will be receipted for by the passenger. Provided, however, that when the carrier arranges, for the passenger's convenience, alternate means of transportation that departs prior to the time the offer can be made to the passenger, the offer shall be made by mail or other means within 24 hours after the time the failure occurs. (E) NOTICE PROVIDED PASSENGERS  The following written notice shall be provided all passengers who are denied boarding involuntarily on flights on which they hold confirmed reserved space. Blanks that appear in parentheses in the notice below will be completed in the actual notice provided passengers, with the full name of the applicable carrier and with the carrier's specific boarding priorities. NOTE: For the purpose of this rule, specific boarding priorities are provided in paragraph (B) above.

†PART 18 - VIA TW

COMPENSATION FOR DENIED BOARDING

If you have been denied a reserved seat on ( ) Airlines, you are probably entitled to monetary compensation. This notice explains the airline's obligations and the passenger's rights in the case of an oversold flight, in accordance with regulations of the U.S. Civil Aeronautics Board.

VOLUNTEERS AND BOARDING PRIORITIES

If a flight is oversold (more passengers hold confirmed reservations than there are seats available), no one may be denied boarding against his will until airline personnel first ask for volunteers who will give up their reservations willingly, in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, other passengers may be denied boarding involuntarily, in accordance with the following boarding priority of ( ) Airlines: ( )

(3)

COMPENSATION FOR INVOLUNTARY DENIED BOARDING

If you are denied boarding involuntarily, you are entitled to a payment of "denied boarding compensation" from the airline unless (1) you have not fully complied with the airline's ticketing, check-in, and reconfirmation requirements, or you are not acceptable for transportation under the airline's tariff filed with the C.A.B.; or (2) you are denied boarding because the flight is cancelled; or (3) you are denied boarding because a smaller capacity aircraft was substituted for safety or operational reasons; or (4) you are offered accommodations in a section of the aircraft other than that specified in your ticket, at no extra charge. (A passenger seated in a section for which a lower fare is charged must be given an appropriate refund.); or (5) the airline is able to place you on another flight or flights that are planned to reach your destination within one hour of the planned arrival of your original flight.

AMOUNT OF DENIED BOARDING COMPENSATION

Passengers who are eligible for denied boarding compensation must be offered a payment equal to the sum of the face values of their ticket coupons, with a USD/FCU 200.00 maximum. However, if the airline cannot arrange "alternate transportation" (see below) for the passenger, the compensation is doubled with a USD/FCU 400.00 maximum. The "value" of a ticket coupon is the one way fare for the flight shown on the coupon, including any surcharge and air transportation tax, minus any applicable discount. All flight coupons, including connecting flights, to the passenger's destination or first 4-hour stopover are used to compute the compensation. "Alternate transportation" is air transportation provided by an airline licensed by the C.A.B. or other transportation used by the passenger which, at the time the arrangement is made, is planned to arrive at the passenger's next scheduled stopover (of 4 hours or longer) or destination no later 4 hours after the passenger's originally scheduled arrival time.

METHOD OF PAYMENT

The airline must give each passenger who qualifies for denied boarding compensation, a payment by check or draft for the amount specified above, on the day and place the involuntary denied boarding occurs. However, if the airline arranges alternate transportation for the passenger's convenience that departs before the payment can be made, the payment will be sent to the passenger within 24 hours. The carrier may offer transportation credit in place of cash payment. The passenger may, however, insist upon the cash payment, or refuse all compensation and bring legal action.

PASSENGER'S OPTIONS

Acceptance of the compensation (by endorsing the check or draft within 30 days) relieves ( ) Airlines from any further liability to the passenger caused by its failure to honor the confirmed reservation. However, the passenger may decline the payment and seek to recover damages in a court of law or in some other manner.

87	DENIED BOARDING COMPENSATION (Continued) PART 23 - VIA PH                  (Applicable to flights originating in the U.S.A.) (A) REQUEST FOR VOLUNTEERS                  The carrier will request passengers who are willing to do so, to voluntarily relinquish their confirmed reserved space in exchange for compensation in an amount determined by the carrier. If a passenger is asked to volunteer, the carrier will not later deny boarding to that passenger involuntarily unless that passenger was informed at the time he was asked to volunteer that there was a possibility of being denied boarding involuntarily and of the amount of compensation to which he would have been entitled in that event. The request for volunteers and the selection of such persons to be denied space shall be in a manner determined solely by the carrier. (B) BOARDING PRIORITIES                  If a flight is oversold (more passengers hold confirmed reservations than there are seats available), no one may be denied boarding against his will until airline personnel first ask for volunteers who will give up their reservations willingly, in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, other passengers may be denied boarding involuntarily, in accordance with the boarding priority of the specific carrier. The boarding priorities are provided below.  NOTE: The boarding priorities as presented below will appear in the Notice provided to passengers denied boarding (see paragraph (E) below).                  Passengers will be denied boarding in the following order:                  (1) Passengers without onward connections.                  (2) Confirmed revenue passengers, regardless of fare paid.                  (3) Passengers, regardless of fare paid, who are physically handicapped to an extent that failure to carry would cause a severe hardship, or any other passengers, including unaccompanied minors under 12 years of age, who would suffer a severe hardship. (C) TRANSPORTATION FOR PASSENGER DENIED BOARDING                  When the carrier is unable to provide previously confirmed space the carrier causing the passenger to be delayed will provide transportation to persons who have been denied boarding, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, in accordance with the provisions below.                  (1) Carrier will transport the passenger without stopover on its next flight on which space is available at no additional cost to the passenger regardless of class of service.                  (2) If the carrier causing such delay is unable to provide onward transportation acceptable to the passenger, any other carrier or combination of carriers, at the request of the passenger, will transport the passenger without stopover on its (their) next flight(s) in the same class of service as the passenger's original outbound flight, or if space is available on a flight(s) of a different class of service acceptable to the passenger, such flight(s) will be used without stopover at no additional cost to the passenger only if it (they) will provide an earlier arrival at the passenger's destination, next stopover point, or transfer point. (D) COMPENSATION FOR INVOLUNTARY DENIED BOARDING                  In addition to providing transportation as described in paragraph (C) above, when the passenger who is delayed has not voluntarily relinquished confirmed reserved space in accordance with provisions in paragraph (A) above, the carrier causing the delay will compensate the delayed passenger for the carrier's failure to provide confirmed space. Compensation will be made in accordance with the provisions below.                  (1) Conditions for Payment                  (a) The passenger holding a ticket for confirmed space must present himself for carriage at the appropriate time and place, having complied fully with the carrier's requirements as to ticketing, check-in, and reconfirmation procedures and having met all requirements for acceptance for transportation published in carrier's tariff.                  (b) The flight for which the passenger holds confirmed reserved space must be unable to accommodate the passenger and departs without him.  EXCEPTION 1: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if the flight on which he holds confirmed reserved space is unable to accommodate him because of substitution of equipment of a lesser capacity than required by operational or safety reasons.  EXCEPTION 2: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if he is offered accommodations or is seated in a section of the aircraft other than that specified on his ticket at no extra charge. If a passenger is seated in a section for which a lower fare applies the passenger shall be entitled to an appropriate refund.  EXCEPTION 3: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if his reservation has been cancelled pursuant to Rule 60(F)--Check-In Time Limits or Rule 60 (G)--Reconfirmation of Reservations.  EXCEPTION 4: Employees of the carrier or of other carriers traveling on a reduced rate basis. These employees are not eligible for denied boarding compensation.  EXCEPTION 5: The passenger will not be eligible for compensation if placed on another flight(s) that are planned to reach the passenger's destination within one hour of the scheduled arrival of his original flight.  NOTE: The carrier will inform its passengers of its tariff rules concerning check-in time limits by publication in its public timetables and ticket envelopes, and that failure to comply with these rules will result in the cancellation of the passenger's reservation and will render him ineligible for denied boarding compensation.
